

HUMC Youth Group – Weekly Parents Newsletter
September 20 – September 27, 2009

Hi Parents of HUMC Youth!

Here is what happened this past week:

- Sunday Night Youth Group was lots of fun! The message related to 2 Timothy 1: 1-10. The goals of the Message were for the students to learn something new about the nature and character of God and that God provides tools to help us face struggles and challenges.
- We discussed how when we study the bible, whether it is whole verse or just a book, we should see if it tells us anything about Jesus, God or the Holy Spirit.
- Through reading our scripture sheets, we discovered that: God wills His people to be apostles. He gives grace, mercy, and peace. He is the Father.
- In God the Father, as followers of Jesus, we can have confidence that He will give us the adequate tools to deal with whatever life throws at us.
- Jesus is a perfect example of this kind of faith: He was always dependent, trusting in the Father to provide Him with the tools necessary to carry out His ministry.
- Finally, we ended in prayer and thoughts of how we can keep God's promises front and center when life throws tough stuff at us.

Next Week:

- Aldersgate Choir is singing at the 11:15 service, choir members should plan to be at rehearsal in the choir room at 10:45
- Wednesday, September 23rd is "See You At the Pole" for Hudson Senior High! We are meeting at the church at 7:30 a.m. for a wonderful, big breakfast. At 8:15 we will walk over together to the flagpole outside of the high school and pray silently before school begins at 9 a.m. We will pray for the school, our friends and our family. Youth are welcome and encouraged to bring friends!
